

Scheme of Delegation: Delegation of Planning Applications, Enforcement and other Planning Matters (Revised April 2017)

Introduction

Part 4 Section 7 (4) (b) Local Government Act (Northern Ireland) 2014 allows a Council Committee to delegate certain matters to an officer of the council. In relation to the scheme of delegation for planning applications, enforcement and other planning matters the person appointed by the Council to exercise delegated powers is the Head of Planning within the Council and those senior officers¹ nominated by this officer in writing.

Delegation of Planning Applications

This scheme of delegation (as revised) for the determination of planning applications has been agreed by Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council and approved by the Department for Infrastructure. The scheme of delegation (as revised) is in accordance with Section 31 of The Planning Act (NI) 2011 and takes effect from 30 April 2017.

Part A – Planning Applications required under the Planning Act to be determined by the Planning Committee

Statutory provisions within the Planning Act (NI) 2011 require that certain types of planning application must be determined by the Planning Committee. Accordingly the following categories of application cannot be delegated to officers:

- (a) An application that falls within the Major category of development;
- (b) An application for planning permission where the application is made by the Council or an elected member of the Council, and
- (c) An application relating to land in which the Council has an interest.

Part B – Delegated Planning Applications

The Council has agreed that the person appointed is empowered to determine all planning applications that fall within the Local category of development whether for approval or refusal with the following exceptions:

- (a) An application made by an employee of the Council, their spouse, partner or close relative (mother, father, children);
- (b) An application that would introduce fundamental changes to a major application that has been determined by the Planning Committee;

¹ For the purposes of this scheme of delegation a senior officer is defined as a Principal Planning Officer or a Senior Planning Officer employed by the Council.

- (c) An application which is a departure from the Development Plan and which is recommended for approval.
- (d) An application subject to objections from more than 2 postal addresses within the Neighbour Notification area or 5 objections from occupied properties in the wider area;
- (e) An application recommended for refusal, except where the refusal decision relates to a retrospective application where there is an Enforcement Notice in place or cases where information required to determine the application has not been submitted following a reasonable request;
- (f) An application which the Head of Planning considers should be considered and decided by the Committee; and
- (g) An application which is referred to the Committee by a Member of the Council. Any such referral must be made in writing to the Head of Planning within 21 calendar days of validation of the application and accompanied by a sound planning reason.

Delegation of Enforcement and other Planning Matters

Part C – Enforcement

As well as determining planning applications, the Council is also responsible for the enforcement of planning control and a range of other planning matters, including the processing of other planning consents.

The Council has agreed that all matters associated with the enforcement of planning control are delegated to the person appointed by the Council with the following exceptions:

- (a) The service of an Enforcement Notice, Listed Building Enforcement Notice, Stop Notice, Temporary Stop Notice, Breach of Condition Notice or Fixed Penalty Notice, except in circumstances where the person appointed considers the breach of planning control could result in immediate public danger or development which may result in permanent damage to the environment. Examples include: the demolition of, or works to, a listed building; the felling of protected trees; the demolition of a building in a conservation area; or the commencement of building operations without permission. The service of any such Notice will be reported to the next available Planning Committee for ratification;
- (b) The instigation of court proceedings with the exception of direct offences in relation to advertisement control, Tree Preservation Orders, Conservation Areas and Listed Buildings and prosecution for non-compliance with a Planning Contravention Notice and a Submission Notice; and
- (c) Any other enforcement matter which the Head of Planning considers should be considered and decided by the Committee.

Part D – Determination of other Planning Matters

In relation to other planning responsibilities the Council has agreed that the following matters are also delegated to the person appointed:

- (a) The issuing of a certificate of lawful use or development;
- (b) The making of a non-material change to a planning permission;
- (c) The issuing of a correction notice; and
- (d) The screening of and determination decisions on development proposals required under the Environmental Impact Assessment or Habitats Regulations.

The Council has also agreed that the following matters are delegated to the person appointed subject to the same exceptions set out under Part B above:

- (e) Determination of any application for listed building consent;
- (f) Determination of any application for conservation area consent;
- (g) Determination of any application for advertisement consent;
- (h) Determination of any application to carry out works to a protected tree (i.e. a tree the subject of a Tree Preservation Order); and
- (i) Determination of any hazardous substance consent.

The Council has also agreed that the following matters are delegated to the person appointed in circumstances where awaiting the Planning Committee meeting could result in serious environmental or amenity damage arising:

- (j) The serving of a Provisional Tree Preservation Order; and
- (k) The affixing of a Building Preservation Notice

The use of these powers will be reported to the next available Planning Committee meeting for ratification.

Part E – Publicity

The Council has made a copy of this Scheme of Delegation available on the Council's website at www.antrimandnewtownabbey.gov.uk and it is also available on request at the Council's offices in Mossley Mill and Antrim Civic Centre.

Part F – Review

This Scheme of Delegation will be subject to review by the Planning Committee every 12 months or at any such time as requested by more than 50% of the members of the Committee.
